Pleasure in Anglo-Saxon England

Yale University

Conference sessions take place in the Hall of Graduate Studies, Room 119a, 320 York St.

9:45 – 10:30 Breakfast

10:30 – 11:45 Session 1: Linguistic Pleasures
Presider: Denis Ferhatović

Andrés D.S. Wilson (Columbia): Dreaming the Impossible Dream: the Implications of dream as Ideal Joy
Respondent: Emily Butler (University of Toronto)

Corey J. Zwikstra (Notre Dame): The Pleasure of Symposius' 'But':
Influence and Opposition between Latin Enigmata and Old English Riddles
Respondent: William Salmon (Yale)

E-Ching Ng (Yale): Swinging the Top: A Crux in the Old English Apollonius of Tyre
Respondent: Carrie K. Ho (Rutgers)

12:00 – 12:45 Manuscript Session with Fred Robinson, at the Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library, 121 Wall Street.

1:00 – 2:00 Lunch in HGS, sponsored by the Beinecke

2:15 – 3:45 Session 2: Sense, Emotion, and Appetite
Presider: Jordan Zweck

Hilary E. Fox (Notre Dame): The Pleasure of Anger in Beowulf
Respondent: Andrew Pfrenger (University of Connecticut)

Rosa Maria Fera (Cambridge): Pa Fif Andgitu: the Anglo-Saxon Perception of the Five Senses
Respondent: Brigit McGuire (Columbia)

Aaron Hostetter (Princeton): A Tasty Turn of Phrase: Cannibal Poetics in Andreas
Respondent: Mary Kate Hurley (Columbia)

3:45 – 4:00 Tea and Coffee Break

4:00 – 5:15 Session 3: Hagiographic Heroines
Presider: Irina Dumitrescu

Anthony Adams (Tennessee): Sympathy for the Devil? The Pleasure of Sacrifice in Juliana
Respondent: Nienke Christine Venderbosch (Yale)

Laura Miles (Yale): Mothering the Book in Old English Versions of the Life of St. Margaret Respondent: Wendy Hoofnagle (University of Connecticut)

Sarah Sheridan (Rutgers): Old English Judith and the Pleasures of Subjectivity
Respondent: Lytton Smith (Columbia)

6:30 Dinner at BAR, 254 Crown Street.

Contact: pleasureatyale@hotmail.com

http://www.columbia.edu/cu/assc/